

United States of America /
Districts of California / Jr.

Charles A. Stovall

being duly sworn says on his oath that he is the identical person who now claims a certain negro slave called Arby, in the matter of which claim proceedings are at this time pending before Hon. George Penn Johnson United States Commissioner for the Districts of California. Affiant says that he makes this affidavit in explanation of the original affidavit filed in the present proceedings.

He says that it is true that he was the owner and lawfully entitled to the possession, of said Arby in the state of Mississippi. That under and by virtue of the laws of said state said Arby was held to labor and service in said state.

That some time in the month of January AD 1859, said Arby did commit a crime against the laws of said state of Mississippi, viz, Said Arby did stab a white man whose name was Smiley, with a certain knife, with a felonious intention and said stabbing was done in the County of Carroll, and it is true that because of said offense, said Arby did flee from the said state of Mississippi,